

The Mission Statement of Southern Day Camp, Pocatello

The mission of Southern Day Camp in Pocatello is to help fulfill the Purposes and Methods of Cub Scouting by building character and citizenship in the home and community, opportunities for spiritual growth, sportsmanship & fitness, working toward advancement and FUN and ADVENTURE.

Dates & Time

Cub Scout Day Camp 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.		Webelos Day Camp 5:00 p.m. (Friday) to 3 p.m. (Saturday)	Girl's Day Camp 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
May 31st	June 7th	June 3rd & 4th	June 14th
June 1st	June 8th	June 10th & 11th	June 15th
June 2nd	June 9th	June 17th & 18th	June 16th
June 3rd	June 10th		June 17th
June 6th	June 13th

Location, Location, Location!

1200 Douglas Lane, Pocatello, 83204

*Take the West Pocatello Exit (58 - Simplot) and go north on Tank Farm Road

*When the road "t's", stay to the left and continue following it around to Douglas Lane.

*Turn right onto Douglas Lane and follow it until you get to Southern Day Camp

*For a map and more information, go to:

www.tetonscouts.org

Registration

To receive the early bird discount, you must pay all fees no later than May 23rd. Go to www.tetonscouts.org/camping/Cub Scout Camp/Southern Day Camp to register your participants. Registration is happening only online. You can choose the available day that works best for you and the participants. For convenience, you may pay online. You can also pay at the BSA Service Center. Pocatello: 2306 Pocatello Creek Road, (208) 233-4600 -or- Blackfoot: 205 S. Meridian, (208) 785-1622.

PLEASE NOTE: CAMP REFUND POLICY - All requests for refunds need to be made in writing by completing a Grand Teton Council Refund Request, including a receipt. To be cost effective, instead of issuing a check for a refund of $10.00 or less, the amount will be deposited in the unit account. Refund requests received after the 2-week deadline, following day camp, will be considered only for the following reasons:

- Personal illness of Camper
- A Family emergency preventing attendance

*The Camp Director & Director of Support Services will review the request.

Special Needs

If you have a scout with special needs, please contact the Program Director 4 weeks in advance to the first day of Day Camp and offer suggestions to assist the participant in completing as much of the activities as he/she can.

Leader's General Responsibilities

For Cub Scouts: At least one adult escorting their den at Day Camp must be registered with the Boy Scouts of America and taken Youth Protection and Hazardous Weather online at:

www.tetonscouts.org/training

To All Leaders: Leaders and adults in attendance with their youth are responsible for escorting them from station to station, encouraging active participation in the activities AND taking an active part in each station yourself. See back for participant to leader ratio requirements.

Program/Rotations

Some of the activities that will be encountered, but are not limited to at Day Camp will be:

- Science Experiments
- Forensics
- Rain gutter Regatta
- Rockets
- First Aid
- BB Guns
- Archery
- Sling Shots
- Citizenship
- Campfire Program
- Plus, much, much more!

Weather

In Idaho, we are blessed with the 4 seasons! With that, one day it could be warm, clear and sunny. The next, the sky is full of dark clouds, windy, cold and rainy. Please help the participants you are responsible for plan accordingly so they are safe and protected from the elements. Each station will have a shelter to help with protection from the elements. For more information on preparation for all weather, go to www.tetonscouts.org.

Some items you should consider including in your day pack are (depending the weather):

- Light Jacket
- Sweatshirt
- Raincoat/Poncho
- Umbrella
- Hat
- Extra Socks
- Sun Block
- Sunglasses
- Insect Repellant
- Sneakers/Comfortable, Closed - Toe Shoes
- No flip flops or sandals

Other things to bring: Health form A & B for participants and adults in attendance (you can find these at the Service Center or go online), Tour and Activity Plan (found at www.tetonscouts.org), a sack lunch for everyone in your group and handbook.

Emergency Procedures

The siren will remain on which will signal an emergency. STAY WHERE YOU ARE! A runner will come to you with further instructions. Do not move or go to look for someone. Please inform your runner of any concerns.

All clothes should be clearly marked with the Scout's name and pack number. *Shoes should be broken in before day camp. No sandals or open toed shoes are allowed. Closed toe and heel shoes must be worn throughout day camp for each Scout's safety.

Contact Information

Camp Director: Dan Deakin (208) 406-9745

Program Director: Melanie Garvin (208) 240-3622

www.tetonscouts.org

At least 2 adult leaders (one must be 21 or older) are required per group. 1 leader per 5 participants (see below).

of Participants	# of Leaders
1 to 10	2
11 to 15	3
16 to 20	4
Etcetera

Cubs should be in uniform while attending. They can either wear their blue or tan button up shirt, a day camp shirt (can be purchased at the Trading Post) or a pack t-shirt.

"The most worthwhile thing is to try to put HAPPINESS into the lives of others."

Robert Baden-Powell, founder of the Scouting movement

www.tetonscouts.org

DAY CAMP LEADER'S GUIDE

DAY CAMP PRESENTED BY GRAND TETON COUNCIL

